

1           THE COURT: Thank you.

2           Mr. Edward Langevin, in consideration of the crime
3 of which you stand convicted, the factors the Court must and 4 has taken into account under 18 United States Code, Section
5 3553, the information from the United States Attorney, your 6 attorney, the probation officer and yourself, this Court 7 sentences you to 54 months, four and-a-half years, in the 8 custody of the United States Attorney General, places you on 9 supervised release for a period of three years thereafter.
10 The Court imposes no fine due to your inability to pay a 11 fine, and the Court imposes a $100 special assessment as 12 required by law.

13           During the period of your supervised release you're 14 prohibited from possessing a firearm or other dangerous
15 weapon. You're to participate in a program for substance
16 abuse as directed by the United States Probation Office
17 which program may exceed, include testing not to exceed 104
18 drug tests per year. You are required to contribute to the 19 costs of the services of such program. You're not to 20 consume any alcoholic beverages.

21           Let me explain that sentence.

22           (Whereupon the Court and the Clerk conferred.)

23           THE COURT: The Court also imposes the requirement
24 that you submit to DNA testing as provided, as required by 25 the United States Probation Office.

1           Let me explain this sentence. This is a sale of 2       firearms. It's a number of firearms. It's the sale of 3       firearms after a substantial record. I recognize that 4       you're a drug addict. I take that into account. The reason
5       that this sentence is less than I am advised to impose by 6       the Sentencing Commission is for that reason. These crimes, 7       though I have no hesitancy considering the charge of 8       burglary as a crime of violence, in terms of actual effect
9       are not violent crimes, and I consider that your lengthy 10      criminal record overstates your criminality because this 11      criminality is driven to a significant degree by the fact
12      that you're a drug addict.

13           Now, having said that and having taken that into 14      account, the least I can do is give you a four and-a-half
15      year sentence. Stealing these firearms and then selling 16      them even to support your drug habit is in these United 17      States, in these days, an extraordinarily dangerous crime.

18           This is a fair and a just sentence. It is the 19      sentence of the Court.

20           You will have credit toward this sentence from the 21      period of September 24th through October 13th, 2004, and 22      then from November 9th, 2004 until the present.

23           You are notified you have the right to appeal from 24      any findings or rulings this Court has made against you.
25      Should you appeal and should your appeal be successful in

1 whole or in part sentencing or resentencing will be 2 accomplished before some other judge.

3 That's the sentence of the Court. He's remanded to 4 the custody of the marshals.

5 MR. WATKINS: Thank you, your Honor.

6 MR. CABELL: Thank you, your Honor.
